True Abundance Life Deliverance Ministry

PROVERBS 3:5-6 (KJV)

<sup>5</sup>Trust in the Lord with all thine heart: and lean not unto thine own understanding. <sup>6</sup>In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. <sup>7</sup>Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil. <sup>8</sup>It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones.

Revelation 22:12 (KJV)

<sup>12</sup>And behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

Obituary

Patricia Lillian Morton (Pat/Patsy), daughter of the late Mr. James Morton and the late Mrs. Eddie Mae Shannon was born on May 26, 1947, in Washington, D.C. She was raised in the admiration and fear of Almighty God by the late Mr. William and the late Mrs. Lillian Adams (momma and daddy). At an early age, Pat gave her life to the Lord Jesus Christ and was a member of the Gospel Spreading Church located at 2030 Georgia Avenue, Washington, D.C.

In 1987 she rededicated her life to Christ, returned to her home church, and began her missionary work. A few years later she answered God's call as an Evangelist and preached the Word of God to many souls, fed and clothed the homeless, gave money to those who had a need, and compelled people to accept Jesus Christ. She was a prayer warrior and bold witness for the Lord Jesus Christ.

Pat completed her high school education at Eastern High School and attended the University of Maryland where she received her Property Casualty certification. She began her career working as a government contractor (medical claims examiner and flood insurance claims) for Computer Sciences Corporation (CSC), Electronic Data Systems (EDS), and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Pat last worked for MBI Health Services, LLC as a Community Support Worker (CSW) where she assisted her clients up until she became ill and could no longer work.

Pat loved the beach and looked forward to spending time with her family in Ocean City, Maryland every summer. She woke up early in the morning, sat on the beach, and read her bible while watching the sunrise and the dolphins. She loved shopping for clothes and shoes, knick-knacks and antiques, and toys for her great-grandchildren. Pat loved to cook candied yams, turkey tails, great northern beans, macaroni and cheese, potato salad, and lasagna. Lastly, she loved talking on the phone and helping people, home decor, and the color green.

Pat leaves to cherish her loving memory: one daughter, Kimberly Allen Trezvánt (Charles, son-in-law); her sons: LoMel (Mel), LaMar (Ant), Neal III (Moochie), Jermoil (Fats), LoVel (Dep – preceded her death); her grandchildren: Brandon (Crystal, granddaughter-in-law), Tye (Betta, granddaughter-in-law), Bradrick (Brad), Samaria (Moo Moo), Chanel, Ashley, Andre, Nadia, Tachelle (preceded her death), LaMar Jr. (Little Ant), Wanice Edwards, Aniyah, LoVel Harrison (Little Dep – preceded her death); sister, Jaimette Wilson; brother, James (Tony) Burgess, II; her niece, Jovette Nelson; 16 great-grandchildren; a host of other relatives, friends, and coworkers.

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. (ET)

A collection of seashells and starfish on a sandy beach. The shells are in various colors including purple, white, yellow, and red. There are two prominent red starfish. The background is a textured, light brown sand.

Some Golden Daybreak

*Some glorious morning sorrow will cease,
Some glorious morning all will be peace;
Heartaches all ended, school days all done,
Heaven will open, Jesus will come.*

*Some golden daybreak Jesus will come;
Some golden daybreak battles all won,
He'll shout the vict'ry break through the blue,
Some golden daybreak, for me, for you.
Sad hearts will gladden, all shall be bright,
Goodbye forever to Earth's dark night;
Changed in a moment, like Him to be,
Oh, glorious daybreak, Jesus I'll see.*

*Oh what a meeting, there in the skies,
No tears no crying shall dim our eyes;
Loved ones united eternally,
Oh what a daybreak that morn will be.*

A Wonderful Grandmother

*We had a wonderful grandmother;
One who never really grew old.*

*Her smile was made of sunshine;
And her heart was solid as gold.*

*Her eyes were bright as shining stars;
And in her cheeks fair roses, you see.*

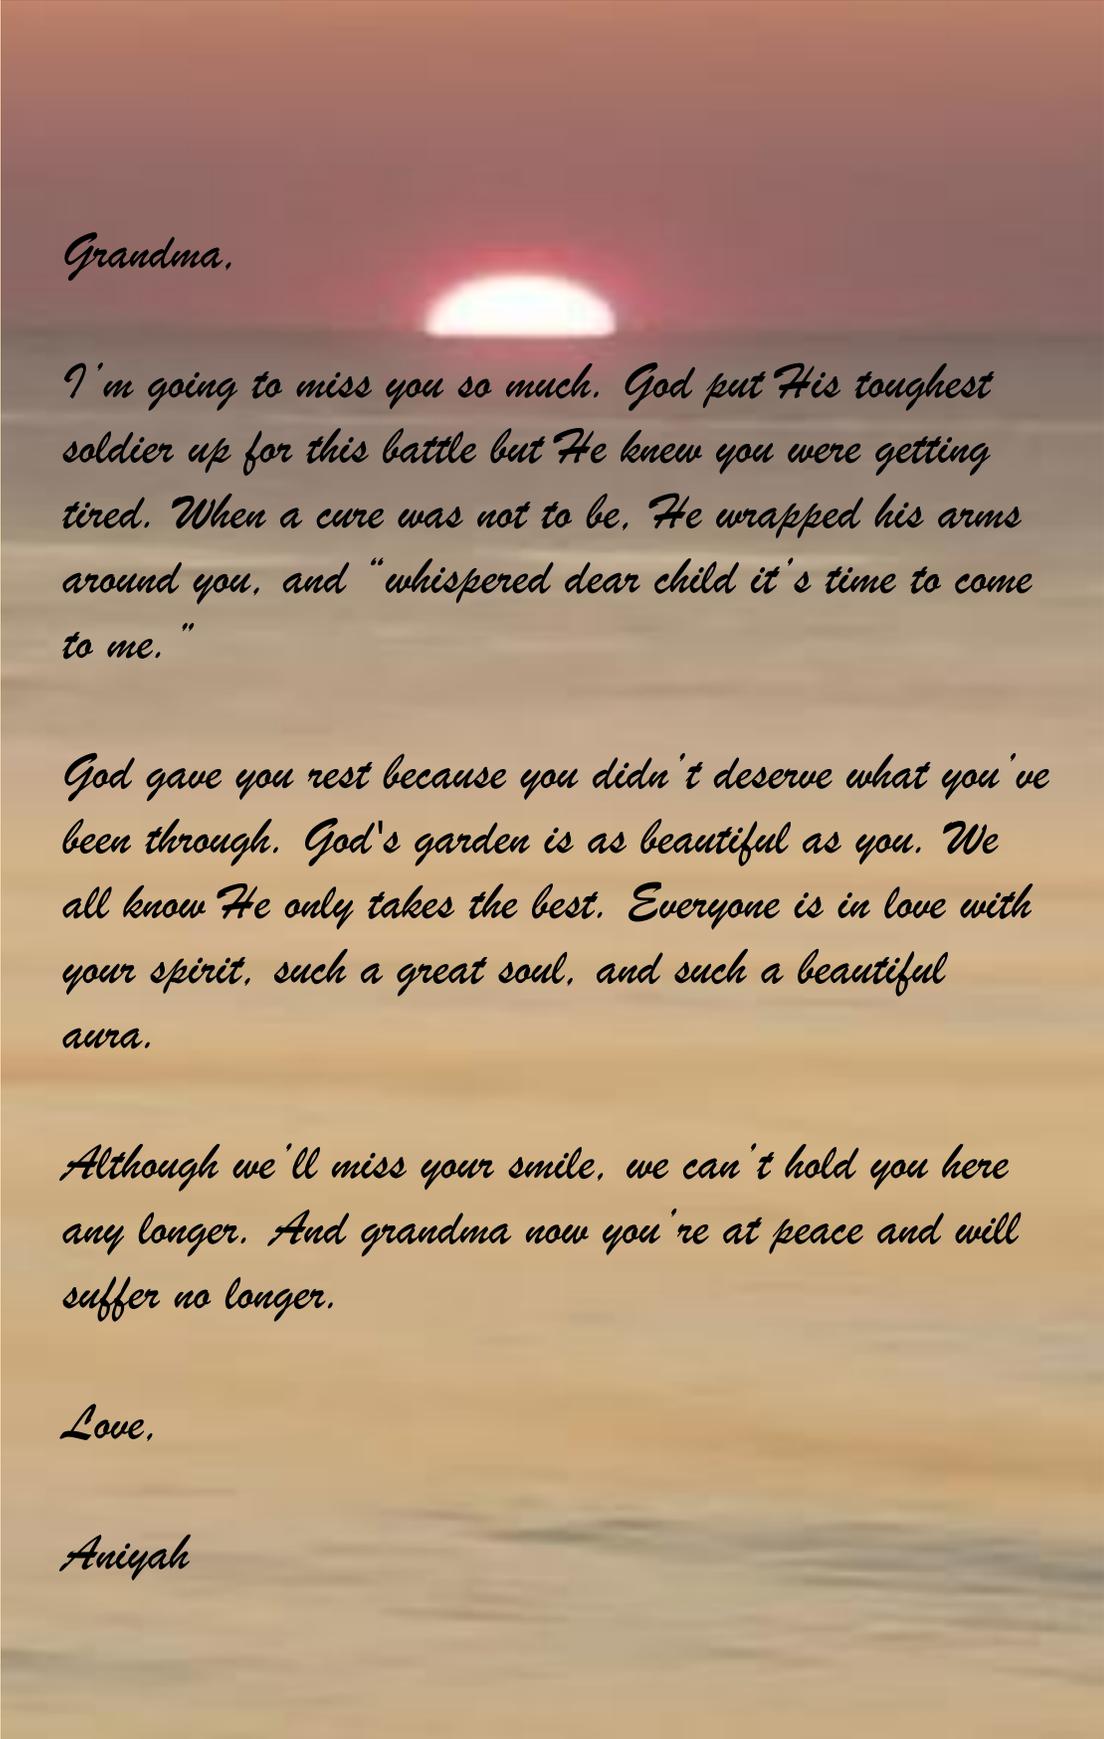

*We had a wonderful grandmother;
And that's the way it will always be.*

*But take heed because she's keeping an eye on us all;
So let's make sure she will like what she sees.*

You will truly be missed.

Your loving twin grand-daughter,

Nadia

Grandma,

I'm going to miss you so much. God put His toughest soldier up for this battle but He knew you were getting tired. When a cure was not to be, He wrapped his arms around you, and "whispered dear child it's time to come to me."

God gave you rest because you didn't deserve what you've been through. God's garden is as beautiful as you. We all know He only takes the best. Everyone is in love with your spirit, such a great soul, and such a beautiful aura.

Although we'll miss your smile, we can't hold you here any longer. And grandma now you're at peace and will suffer no longer.

Love,

Aniyah

In Appreciation

The family of the late Evangelist Morton wishes to express this thought:

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers, that we saw sitting there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much for whatever the part.

A special thank you to everyone who contributed to this homegoing service through their acts of kindness, prayers, expressions of sympathy, and love during this difficult time. May God richly bless you.
